

Anniversary – Leif B - 60! – cont.

We all add a day to the days before, a year to the years before and suddenly you have to celebrate.
- we did and enjoyed seeing so many friends around us. We celebrate the even decades.

No one mentioned – no one forgotten! Here comes a collage of pictures taken during a, for me, unforgettable event.

It started with a buffet in an almost empty house and we continued with a bubble mingle in the late sun at a terrace outside a nice dining room where we had the real celebration.

After mingling and bubbling it was time for dinner and dance.
